

HARDIN COUNTY FISCAL COURT

WORK SESSION JANUARY 6, 2004

Judge Berry announced the Hardin County Fair Board Meeting at Nolin RECC at noon on Monday, January 12th.

Deborah O’Gorman, Kentucky Epileptic Board, appeared before the court to support public transportation in Hardin County.

Michael Markey, appeared before the court to encourage the court to provide public transportation in Hardin County.

Martina Masoni, Radcliff, appeared before the court requesting public transportation in Hardin County.

Heather Ball, Elizabethtown, also appeared before the court asking for public transportation in Hardin County.

Brandy Johnson, Radcliff, expressed the need for public transportation in Hardin County.

Judge/Executive Berry reported that a study was being conducted on the feasibility of public transportation in Hardin County and should be ready this summer.

Squire King announced the death of former Property Valuation Administrator, Randall Jones. Mr. Jones served in this capacity for 24 years. His funeral will be Thursday, January 8, 2004 at the Elizabethtown Baptist Church.

Court was adjourned by Harry L. Berry, Judge/Executive presiding.

HARDIN COUNTY JUDGE/EXECUTIVE