

OPEN RECORDS POLICY (KRS 61.870 to 61.884)

1. The public is notified that all requests for inspection of public records of the Hardin County 911 Center must be submitted to the Official Records Custodian:

D Michelle Bowen
Hardin County 911 Center
150 N Provident Way, Suite B104
Elizabethtown, KY 42701
Email: copyrequest.hc911@hcky.org
Office Hours: Monday-Friday, 8:30 until 4:00 excluding holidays

2. The request must be in writing and include the following information: (a) name, mailing address, and telephone number of the individual requesting to inspect the records, and (b) the specific record(s) the requestor wishes to inspect or to request copies, and (c) whether the records are requested for commercial or noncommercial use. If requested for commercial use, a certified statement stating the commercial purpose for which the records will be used. Available public records are open for inspection by any resident of the Commonwealth. A listing of who is considered a resident is located below. A standard form is available to aid citizens in making their request from the Kentucky Attorney General's website or the Hardin County 911 website.

3. Upon receipt of a written request, the Hardin County 911 Center will respond within five (5) working days. If the records requested are open for public disclosure, the Office will either provide copies of the requested records, or set a time when a requestor may inspect the requested records. If the set time is not convenient for the requestor, the Office will attempt to coordinate a new inspection time convenient to all parties, but it may exceed five (5) working days. If the requested record is not open for public disclosure the records custodian will notify the requestor and provide the statutory exemption(s) under which the request falls.

- a. For public records requested in standard format for noncommercial purposes, the records custodian may charge 10 cents per page for photocopied material. If the requested information is in electronic format the cost of the media and any mechanical processing may be charged. Additionally, the custodian may charge postage fees. The Office will not charge for staff time required to reproduce records for noncommercial use. Any fees shall be paid before copies are made.
- b. For public records requested for commercial purposes, the custodian may require the requestor to enter into a contract which will include the fees charged by the Office. The Office will charge staff time required to produce copies of the records. Any fees shall be paid before copies are made.

KRS 67.870(1)(10) defines a "Resident of the Commonwealth" as the following:
